

Project Report Template

1.Introduction

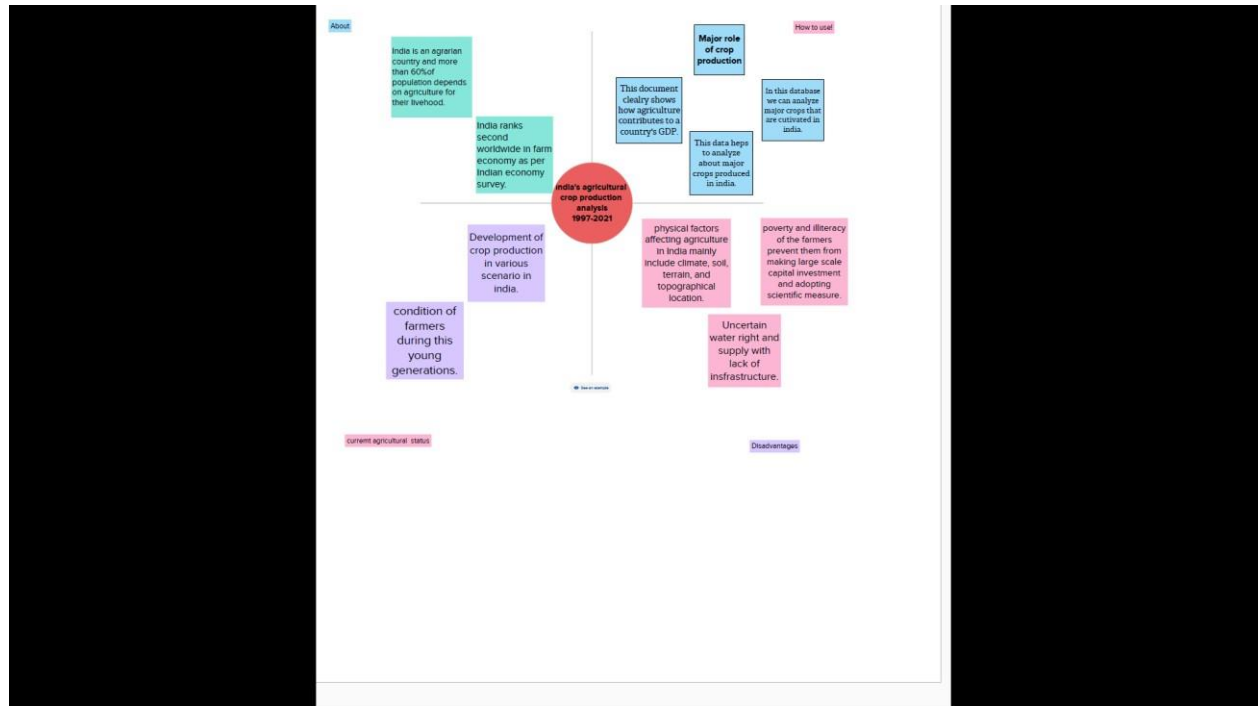

The history of agriculture in India dates back to the Neolithic period. India ranks second worldwide in farm outputs. As per the Indian economic survey 1990-

2021, agriculture employed more than 50% of the Indian workforce and contributed 20.2%to the country's GDP.

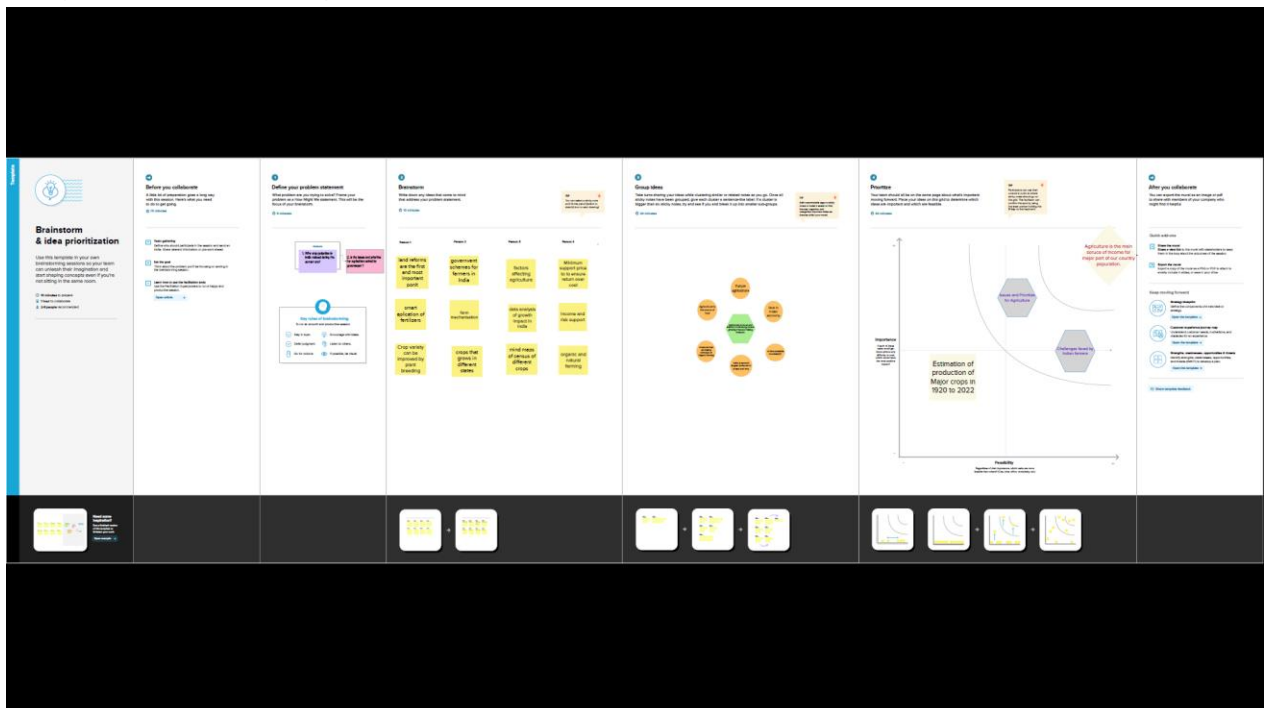

In this project we are analyzing how agriculture helped our Indian economy. Problem and prospects of small scale farmers. Effect of Rural-Urban migration on agricultural production.

2.Problem Definining & Design Thinking

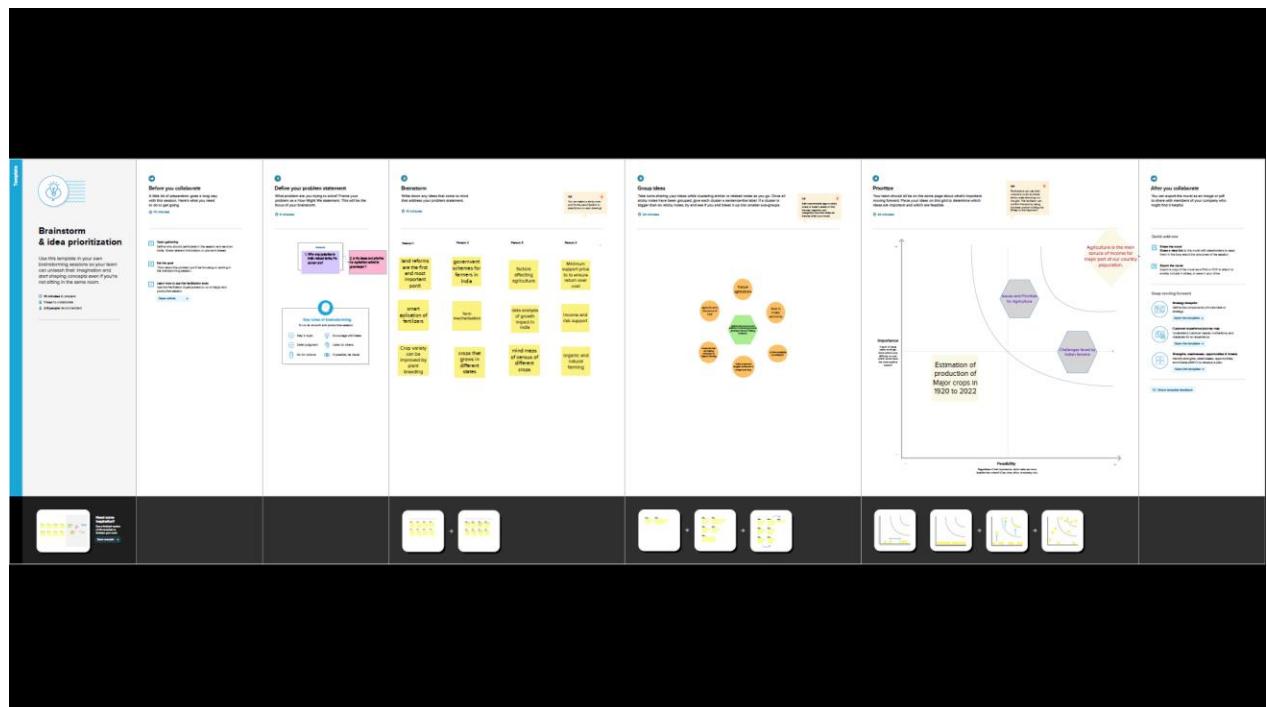

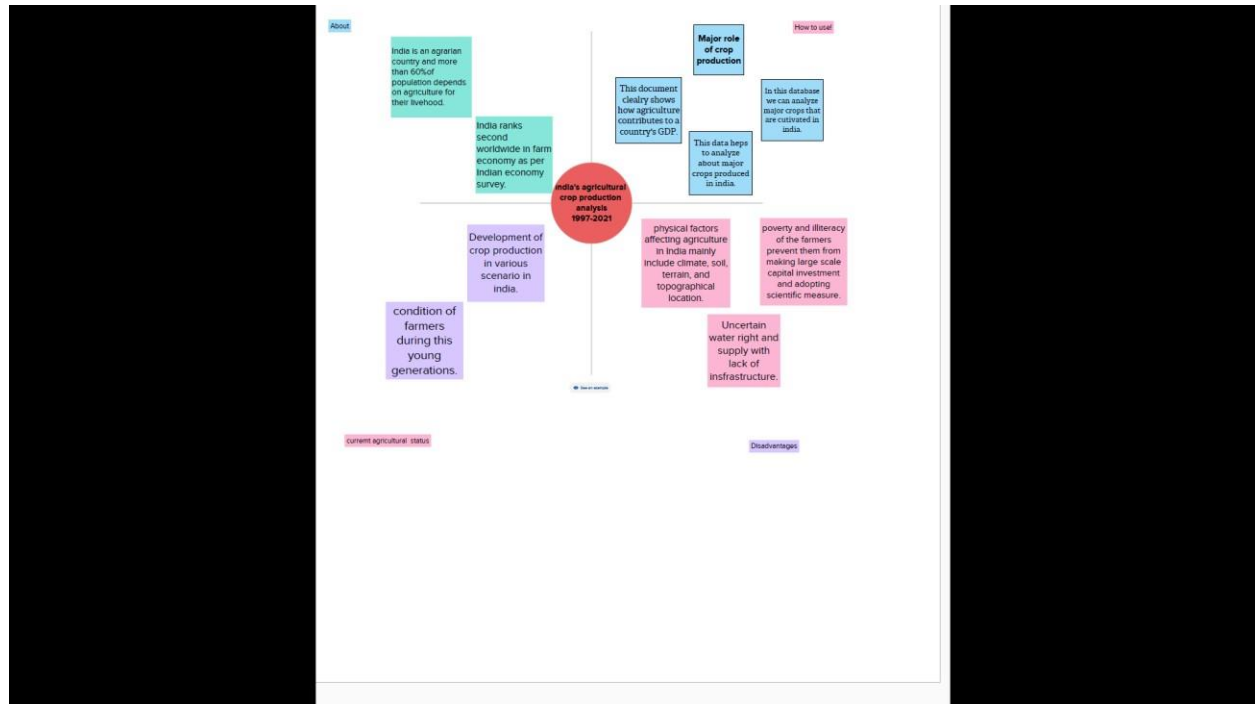

Empathy map:

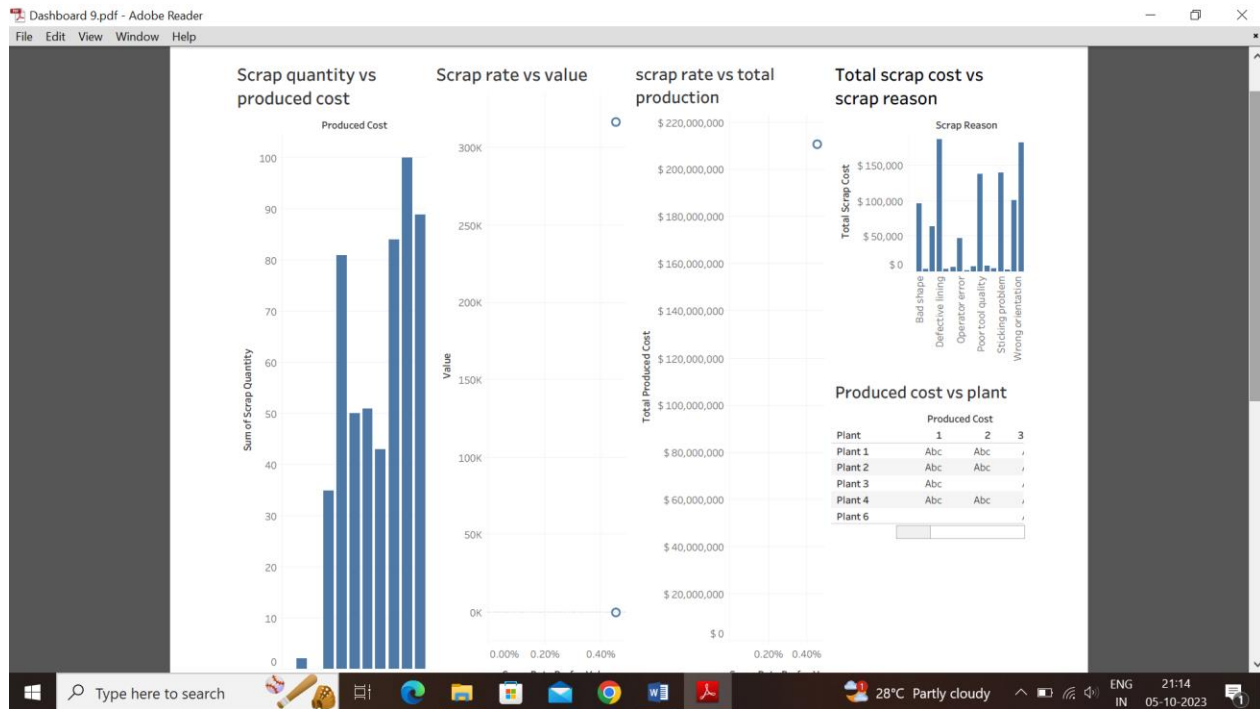

map Brainstorming

3.Result

4. Advantages and disadvantages

. Advantages

- This project shows how our modern agriculture has improved our economical growth by increasing crop production in different state.

By this data we can analyse the major growth rate of different crops in India.

- what are the factors affecting agriculture.
- In this modern agriculture world why agriculture becoming a rare job for youngsters is described.

Disadvantage

- Unable to describe the factors affecting growth in detail.

- and adopting scientific methods of cultivation
- Poverty and illiteracy of the farmers prevent them from making large scale capital investments

5.Applications

Social impact

On the social front, agriculture serves as a vital source of livelihood for a large portion of the population, especially in rural areas. It plays a crucial role in ensuring food security and alleviating poverty by providing employment opportunities and income generation. Moreover, agricultural activities contribute to the overall socio-economic development of rural communities, fostering social cohesion and preserving cultural traditions.

Business impact:

From a business perspective, the agricultural sector plays a pivotal role in India's economy. It contributes to the country's GDP and serves as a source of raw materials for various industries, such as food processing, textile, and pharmaceuticals of the nation. Furthermore, advancements in agricultural practices and technology have the potential to enhance productivity, optimize resource utilization, and competitiveness for agricultural businesses.

6. Conclusion:

Conclusion to conclude: Agriculture plays a great role in Indian agriculture . It is backbone of Indian economy.

7. Future scope

Increasing population, increasing average income and globalization effects in India will increase demand for quantity, quality and nutritious food, and variety of food. Therefore, pressure on decreasing available cultivable land to produce more quantity, variety and quality of food will keep on increasing.

8. APPENDIX

https://public.tableau.com/views/Agriculturalcropproduction/Dashboard9?:language=en-US&:display_count=n&:origin=viz_share_link